4.2.20 Foundation Accredited by National Financial Accountability Organization

RICHMOND, VA – The ECFA (Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability) announced today the accreditation of 4.2.20 Foundation of Richmond, VA.

ECFA accreditation is based on the ECFA Seven Standards of Responsible Stewardship™, including financial accountability, transparency, sound board governance and ethical fundraising.

4.2.20 Foundation joins a growing number of Christ-centered churches and ministries across America, supported by over 27 million donors that have earned the right to display the ECFA seal. When an organization is accredited by ECFA, it demonstrates its willingness to follow the model of biblical accountability.

“We are pleased to accredit a ministry committed to advancing access and engagement with the whole word of God for every language, culture, and people,” said Dan Busby, president of ECFA.

Founded in 2015, 4.2.20 Foundation (www.4220foundation.com) vision is to see the full word of God accessible to every person, with a special focus on oral learners, in a language and format they understand.

To learn more about 4.2.20 Foundation and their stewardship opportunities, visit ServantMatch®, ECFA’s program that matches God’s servants with the stewardship options of ECFA members based on ministry sectors and categories. It is ECFA’s newest online feature that allows you to quickly and easily find giving opportunities.

ECFA, founded in 1979, provides accreditation to leading Christian nonprofit organizations that faithfully demonstrate compliance with the ECFA Standards pertaining to financial accountability, fundraising and board governance.
